Two works by Mexican artist Gonzalo Lebrija. Born in 1972, Gonzalo Lebrija lives and works in Guadalajara, Mexico.
Gonzalo Lebrija is represented in London by Faggionato Gallery

Lebrija's compelling and refined conceptual works offer a perspective on our modern age, critical of a society that no longer believes in Myths, Gods or Monsters and yet remains fearful, isolated and restless. The artist's videos, photographs and installations are imbued with a probing intensity. He uses the mediums of photography, video, sound and sculpture to capture the aesthetic experience of time. With an almost humorous nihilism, the two works presented at sketch explores the passage and futility of life, often focusing on the vertiginous possibilities of frozen moments.
