sketch presents Kinetica 2017

Poetry in Motion

The artworks on show have an intrinsic life force evocative of harnessing elements in nature, delving into the subconscious mind and commenting on our place within the Universe. The works are insightful, experiential, engaging and magical ~ an art with a life of its own.

Curated by celebrated British Artist, Dianne Harris, Kinetica's exhibitions highlight her unique vision and passion for interdisciplinary new media art. Kinetica has been an international platform for over a decade, focusing on contemporary artists and the historical pioneers of the 20th Century working in the lineage of kinetic and new media art. Artists exhibiting under the Kinetica 'Umbrella' can be generically termed as 'transdisciplinary performative users of knowledge', through their own artistic process and appropriation, their works explore the mind, the environment, nature and existence as a whole.

Kinetica is showing at sketch from 31 May Until 09 Sept

On show:

Dianne Harris, Ivan Black, Tim Lewis, José Manuel Gozález, Tom Wilkinson, Balint Bolygo
